Param A. Ri

4785 Cold Creek Way, Conyers, GA, 30094   (404)-918-4364   paramri@gatech.com

http://www.paramtheprogrammer.com

Objective

Find a Computer Science Internship or Co-op at the Georgia Tech Career Fair. Knowledge of Java and Android Application development.

Education

Georgia Institute of Technology Fall Semester 2015.

Bachelor of Computer Science (2017)

- Devices and Info Internetworks threads
- GPA: 3.23

Georgia Perimeter College, Covington, GA. (Fall 2013-Spring 2015)

Principles of Computer Science

- GPA: 3.87

Salem High School, Conyers, GA. (Fall 2009)

College Preparatory Diploma

Coursework

Courses Taken:

CS-1332 Data Structures

CS-2050 Discrete Mathematics

CS-2110 Computer Organization and Programming

CS-3510 Design and Analysis of Algorithms

Currently Taking:

CS-2200 Systems and Networks

CS-4400 Introduction to Database Systems

CS-2340 Objects and Design

Student Organizations:

Georgia Institute of Technology Mobile Application Development (GITMAD)

-Learning about and Developing Android Applications in a team setting

Skills

- Computer: Knowledge of C++, Java, and HTML programming languages.
- Software: Uses the following IDEs: Visual Studio, Eclipse, IntelliJ
- Hardware: Experience upgrading RAM and replacing Hard Drives with Solid State Drives
- Concepts: Designing and customizing Data Structures such as Queues, Stacks, and Trees
- Development: Testing, and debugging GUIs, Assigning Mouse and Keystroke listeners for user input, Creating, editing, and utilizing XML files in Java programs.
- Certifications: Georgia Work Ready Certificate – Silver

Activities

- Georgia Tech Mobile Application Development (GITMAD) Student Organization
- Interests: mobile development, small electronics repair & refurbishment